

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday February 8, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Colleges want rainy-day fund money, too

Pools exempt in House water bill

Bill gives schools weapons against unruly students

Editorials

Flag message clear in 'Clarion-Ledger'

4-day school week an attractive idea

Those wanting flag should pay for it

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Mississippi makes move to get Saints

Tuck, senators tout school safety program

Seat belt bill fails; blood-alcohol measure advances

College Board revamping appears doomed

Column: Vouchers are meaningless if school options do not exist

Column: Uphill battle still ahead in MDOT reform

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Senate votes to take \$39.3M from rainy day fund

House OKs raises for tax collectors

Telemarketing bill would let consumers stop calls

Tourism association joins ranks to change flag

CHARLIE MITCHELL: Don't make another 'excuse' with vouchers

Letter to the Editor

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

College Board makeup won't change

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Some parents sympathize with teachers on pay

Tougher seat belt rules fail in Senate

Gardner looking for way out of city's footing bill for signals

Lawmakers should respect attempt to enforce the law

stateline.org

States Rethinking Drug War Strategy

Mississippi Officials Look for School Fundings Source

